LAW CARD.

ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS and JOHN A. STEPHENS, Attorneys at Law,

Have opened an OFFICE in the R. M. CLARKE BUILDING on WHITEHALL STREET, West side.

The Junior member of the firm, (late of Lagrange, Ga.,) having settled permanently in Atlanta, will give his close attention to the collection of debts, and claims of all sorts, conveyancing, the examination of titles, &c., bonds, contracts of every description, and all matters connected with rents, leases and real estate generally, besides the usual business transacted in the several Courts of the City, County and Circuit.

The Senior member, without changing his residence from Crawfordville, will furnish his counsel and aid in all matters, and on all questions when it may be desired; and will give his special attention and attendance to all litigated cases and criminal trials in all the higher Courts, both State and Federal. feb5 dim

GEORGE T. FRY,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Begs leave to inform the good people of Atlanta, and also those of Fulton, DeKalb, and adjoining counties, that he has located his office in Ball's Building, East side of Whitehall street, in the said city of Atlanta, where he may be found in pursuit upon business, every day (Sundays excepted) from 7 o'clock, A. M., to 6 o'clock, P. M. He will give diligent, careful, and prompt attention to all business confided to his care.

He will make a specialty of the following grades of business, to-wit: The collection of debts, settlement of all money demands, and of all demands growing out of contracts between man and man, all matters appertaining to, or growing out of, the Homestead Law.

Parties desiring to avail themselves of the benefits intended to be conferred by the Homestead Law, are respectfully invited to come to my office for any information they may desire concerning the said law. Also, will attend specially to all matters in Bankruptcy; and he begs leave to say to the unfortunate debtor, who has not taken who is will be allowed the full benefit of the Bankrupt Law, will expire on the first day of January, 1869; after that time you must pay fifty per centum of your indebtedness, or else you cannot have the benefit of the law, except by the consent of a majority, in number and value, of your creditors, which consent you will not be likely to obtain—If you are in debt $300, or upwards, and feel that you cannot pay out, without subjecting yourself and family to great hardships and inconvenience, come to my office, and I will assist you to be relieved from all your distresses and embarrassments, by filing a petition for you for that purpose.

Be sure to make application before the 31st day of December, or else you will be too late! too late!

The citizens are specially invited to come to my office to consult me on any business they may desire to have attended to. They will always find me in my office in a good humor, always glad to see you, and ready to give you a hearty, old fashioned welcome, and will always be ready to attend to your business for you.

Office over Alexander's Hardware and Bradfield's Drug Store, stairway running up between the two, on the same floor of the Southern and St. Louis Life Insurance offices.

Respectfully, GEO. T. FRY.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 10, 1868.

Refers, by permission, to Gen. Wm. Terry, Wytheville, Va; Gen. James A. Walker, Newbern, Va.; Hon. James S. Tipton, Judge of the 15th Judicial Circuit of Virginia, Hillsville, Va.; and Joseph Smith, Attorney at Law, Hillsville, Va. dec1-dly.

EVENING EDITION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, FEBRUARY 16.

Simon Pure Radicalism.

During the debate in the Senate on the proposed 15th Amendment, Mr. Drake, one of the most Radical of the Radical, evidently let slip the cat as to the intentions of the extreme men of that party:

Mr. Whyte, (Democrat) of Maryland, asked him whether, if the Supreme Court should decide the legal tender act to be unconstitutional, the decision ought to be respected?

Mr. Drake replied—Not at all. He would be found standing to his position, and both Houses of Congress would have to come to that position at last, or else sweep from the bench of the Supreme Court the men who dared to attempt to cripple, by their judicial decisions, the law-making power of the country.

That such is the animus of the revolutionary element in Congress no one will deny. It feels that it has the right not only to invade, but to strike down the Judicial and Executive departments of the government, whenever they dare oppose its imperial will. The Republicans proper, however, we do not believe, are prepared to take such aggressive steps. And yet the declaration of Mr. Drake was not rebuked by a single Senator.

The New York Times (Conservative Republican) in allusion to the subject, says:

We do not find that his extraordinary assertion received the indorsement of any other Senator; but, on the other hand, not one repudiated it, or exposed the revolutionary tendency which it displays. It is not probable that Mr. Drake's view would at present receive the sanction even of his fellow-extremists, but his avowal is worthy of remembrance as an indication of the drift of things in the quarter where violent measures are most in vogue.

☞ The Savannah Republican says: "Our hotels are crowded with strangers from the North and our Southern States and every steamship and railroad apparently increases the number. Many take the route to Florida, while the majority are traveling with a view to business. These are emphatically busy times in our city.—Our wharves are jammed with vessels and our docks covered with merchandise—foreign and domestic—of every description."

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, February 16.

Senate was called to order by the President.

Prayer by Mr. Smith, of the 7th.

Journal of proceedings of yesterday read and approved.

RECONSIDERATION.

Mr. BROCK moved to reconsider action of the Senate yesterday on resolution to repeal section 3525 of Irwin's Code. Motion prevailed and resolution returned to Judiciary Committee for perfection.

Mr. BURNS moved to reconsider action yesterday in tabling resolution relative to appointing a special committee of three to examine the clerks appointed by the Secretary as to their qualifications and appointment, supporting the motion in an able and cogent speech.

Mr HUNGERFORD opposed the motion, and moved to lay it on the table.

Mr. BURNS demanded the yeas and nays:

The following is the vote:

Yeas—Adams, Bowers, Dickey, Fain, Harris, Hungerford, Jones, Jordan, Merrell, McWhorter, Nunnally, Richardson, Sherman, Smith, (7th,) Smith, (36th,) Wellborn, Welch and Wooten—18.

Nays—Adkins, Anderson, Brock, Bruton, Burns, Candler, Griffin, (6th.) Hicks, Hinton, Holcombe, McArthur, McCutchen, Moore, Speer and Winn—15.

So the motion to reconsider did not prevail.

Mr. HINTON moved to reconsider the action of yesterday in postponing indefinitely the bill to change the lines between the counties of Talbot and Meriwether.—Motion to lay on the table lost.

On motion to adopt, the yeas and nays were demanded, with the following result:

Yeas—Adams, Adkins, Anderson, Brock, Collier, Dickey, Hicks, Hinton, Holcombe, Merrell, McCutchen, Nunnally, Smith (7th,) and Jones—14.

Nays—Bowers, Bruton, Burns, Hungerford, Harris, Jordan, McWhorter, Moore, Smith, (36th.) Sherman, Speer, Wellborn, Welch and Winn—14.

The President voted nay. So the motion to adopt was lost.

RULES SUSPENDED.

On motion the rules were suspended, and the following bills taken up and acted on:

To amend the charter of the city of Griffin. Judiciary Committee recommend its passage. Report agreed to, bill passed and was transmitted to the House.

To regulate costs. Taken up from the table and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

To amend the act requiring the decisions of the Supreme Court to be published in pamphlet form.

To incorporate the Rome Iron Manufacturing Company.

To amend the act incorporating the town of Marthasville, (now Atlanta,) and provide for an election of mayor and aldermen in the city of Rome.

To amend the charter of the city of Macon. [Providing that an election for mayor and aldermen take place in December, and they to continue in office for two years.]

To repeal the act authorizing Road Commissioners in Glynn county to appropriate money for working certain roads.

SENATE BILLS FIRST READING.

Mr. MERRELL—For relief of executors de sonton. Also, to amend the act for relief of debtors.

Mr. WOOTEN—To relieve tax-payers from double taxes.

Mr. MOORE—To authorize the Ordinaries of Stewart and Webster counties to levy a tax to pay insolvent costs due to officers on recommendation of Grand Jury.

SENATE BILLS SECOND READING.

To amend the laws of arbitration and award. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

To provide for distribution of Poll Tax. Referred to Committee on General Education.

To change time of meeting of General Assembly. Referred to Committee on State of the Republic.

To authorize E. S. Mann, of Gordon county, to peddle without license. Referred to Committee on Petitions.

To provide for more efficient preservation of peace and good order on election days.

To repeal section 897 of the Code. Committed.

To require Justices of the Peace to make out lists of persons liable for taxes. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

To authorize the Governor to endorse the bonds of the North Georgia and Morgantown Railroad Company. Committed.

To prohibit the granting of license to retail liquors, in less quantities than one gallon in Dawson county. Committed.

To amend the law of evidence. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

RESOLUTIONS.

The House resolution authorizing the Comptroller General to receive five per centum on the Convention tax already or hereafter to be collected, concurred in and transferred to the House.

Mr. SPEER offered a resolution that the General Assembly request the Comptroller General to issue instructions to the Tax Collectors of the State to conform to the Constitution, and not to collect more than one dollar for poll tax, but withdrew it.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Leave of absence granted to Mr. Griffin, of the 6th.

Mr. BRUTON, Chairman of the Special Committee to examine into the State balances in the Georgia National Bank, submitted a report which was received.

Mr. WINN offered a resolution that the State Treasurer be directed to enter the sum of $356 42 arising from the interest on balances to the credit of the School Fund. Tabled for the present.

Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, Feb. 16, 1869.

House met pursuant to adjournment.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Crumley.

Journal read and approved.

Mr. SCOTT, of Floyd, moved to reconsider so much of the proceedings of yesterday as relates to the adoption of a resolution appointing a special committee to bring about a final settlement with John Jones, former Treasurer.

He said that a Joint Committee had been appointed at last session, and had faithfully performed their duty in a final settlement with Mr. Jones. The Retrenchment Committee had also investigated the settlement and found nothing objectionable.

Mr. LEE said Mr Jones had made a complete settlement and had receipts, and another settlement was useless, and would be taking up the time of the country for no good.

Mr. HALL, of Meriwether, said he had been informed that no settlement had been made.

The CHAIR said the motion to reconsider was out of order, as the resolution had been transmitted to the Senate on yesterday.

Mr. WILLIAMS, of Morgan, moved to reconsider the bill passed yesterday regulating the letting out of convicts. He said that railroads could not make the necessary arrangements to work only twenty-five hands, and such restrictions should not be enforced. Motion to reconsider prevailed.

Mr. WILLIAMS, of Dooly, moved to reconsider the bill lost yesterday laying off a new county in Decatur county.

Mr. McCULLOUGH said that this bill had been before the Committee on New Counties and County Lines, and a petition was submitted and signed by a number of citizens of Decatur county. The Committee recommend the adoption of the bill. Motion to reconsider prevailed.

A message was received from the Governor stating he had signed "An act to carry into effect the 2d clause of the 13th section of the 5th Article of the Constitution."

Mr. SCOTT, of Floyd, introduced a resolution to ask the return from the Senate of the resolution transmitted to that body on yesterday appointing a special committee to bring about a final settlement with John Jones, former Treasurer. Adopted.

BILLS THIRD READING.

A bill to incorporate the Georgia Life Insurance Company. Passed.

The special order of the day was taken up. It being the veto of the Joint Resolution referring the question of the eligibility of the negroes to the Supreme Court. Joint Resolution read.

Mr. PRICE discussed the resolution and the veto of the Governor.

He said he was not to be swerved from the course he thought best by misrepresentations of the press. The Governor takes a new view of this subject, because he thinks it will subserve the purpose of his party. He read from the Governor's message to the last session to show that he (the Governor) considered the State reconstructed at that time. He said he wished to call attention to an editorial in the morning's Intelligencer which alleged that the question of the eligibility of the negro to seats in the Legislature had been referred to the Supreme Court. Such statement was false. No such action was intended by the resolution, and this was a misrepresentation of the intention of the resolutions.

Mr. O'NEAL said the resolutions were as near nothing as anything he could imagine. There was but one other thing that was as near nothing, and that was the New Era, of this city.

Mr. PRICE wanted to know if the gentleman was in favor of a military government.

Mr. O'NEAL—I am not.

Mr. PRICE—Then what are you talking about? (Laughter)

Mr. O'NEAL said he had introduced a bill to settle this question, and it sleeps on the Clerk's desk. I believed it was unconstitutional.

Mr. SHUMATE moved to make the veto message the special order of the first Monday in March next. Motion prevailed.

A bill to incorporate Kingston, Bartow county. Passed.

A bill for the relief of James M. Edwards, of Taylor county. Lost.

On motion of Mr. GRIMES rules were suspended and reconsidered bill read repealing so much of a bill levying a tax to collect insolvent cost as relates to the counties of Macon and Richmond.

Mr. SMITH, of Macon, amended by adding the county of Macon. Agreed to and bill passed.

A bill to repeal sections 1456-57-58 39-60 and 61, Irwin's Code (unfinished business of yesterday) so far as relates to Houston, Morgan, Monroe, and Macon counties. Passed.

A bill to change the line between the counties of Taylor and Macon. Passed.

A bill to amend the charter of the Fort Valley Loan and Trust Company. Passed.

A bill to authorize the removal of obstructions from Gum Swamp Creek in Pulaski county—incorporating a company for that purpose. Passed.

A bill to change the time of holding Superior Court in the counties of Clinch, Pierce, Appling, Wayne and Ware.

Mr. GRIMES moved to amend by adding Muscogee. Amendment agreed to.

Mr. HALL, of Glynn—An additional section to authorize the holding of Superior Courts in county of Glynn two weeks. Agreed to, and bill passed as amended.

House adjourned.

Fertilizers.

The Star says that almost every wagon that comes to Griffin, returns to the country laden with fertilizers. The sales this season far exceed those of any previous season. There are a half dozen or more dealers in the city—all of whom are doing a large business. Some of them sell as high as thirty tons a day.

Blackwood's Magazine.

To the Leonard Scott Publishing Company, New York, we are indebted for the January number of Blackwood's Magazine. As a standard English work, it has occupied a prominent place in the ranks of periodical literature for near seventy years. Its contents are such as may be safely commended in these days of vicious and spurious publications.

"The Secrets of the Great City."

The above is the title of "a work descriptive of the virtues and vices, the mysteries, miseries and crimes of New York city," by Edward Winslow Martin.

We are indebted to Mr. —— Jamison, Agent, Atlanta, Ga., of the publishing house of Jones, Brothers & Co., for a copy of the work. It is well gotten up in all its typographical features, and throughout its 550 pages gives a highly interesting and, we doubt not, a correct revelation of the secrets of the great American Metropolis. We commend the work for its much valuable information.

The Air-Line Railroad.

A writer in the Air-Line Eagle urges the people to form companies and take contracts on the second section at once, and thus hurry on the work. He further adds:

"Many companies could be formed, who would be amply able to work out a section, and take it in stock, and it would not only be hurrying on the work, but would show an earnestness and zeal that would be very encouraging to all interested. Everything is now encouraging, and with proper efforts on our part, we may very soon be prosperous and happy as a people, build up our waste places, develop our resources and cause our section to 'blossom as the rose.'"

A Voice in the Wilderness!

The surprise of an articulate sound in the Halls of Congress from a living, moving, actual Southern man, speaking the thoughts and feelings of a Southern man, with brave manly emphasis was so complete, that we have not noticed until now the few burning words of our own immediate Representative, General Young, denouncing the outrage of the House of Representatives, in excluding the electoral vote of Georgia. We learn, from good authority, that the impression on the House was very strong when to the surprise of the Radical host bullying and bearing down all in their way, one voice dared to make itself heard in behalf of a constituency so long insulted and trampled on.

General Young said when the vote was cast against the counting of the vote of this State:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to inquire whether it would now be in order for me to enter my solemn protest in behalf of the people of my State, and in the name of the Constitution and laws of the United States against the action of this House, in thus excluding from the Electoral College the State of Georgia. That State, sir, has a full delegation on this floor; her Representatives, of whom I have the honor to be one, were admitted without contest or question. Georgia has performed all the conditions strictly required of her under the reconstruction acts of Congress, and although she is denied, upon mere technical objections, her representation in the Senate, she has vested rights in this House, and she is again a State in this Union, with all the rights and privileges—so far at least as her voice may be heard in this matter—of any other State. To deny to her now and her citizens the dearest right of freemen, the elective franchise, and especially for the Chief Magistrate of the people, is to strike down the great object and principle of republican government, and foreshadow and promote consolidation and despotism. I reiterate my solemn protest against such action."

The SPEAKER.—The remarks just made by the gentleman from Georgia, (Mr Young,) will be recorded in the Globe; but a protest cannot be entered on the Journal as a matter of right; the consent of the House is necessary to grant the privilege. The gentleman will find the rule on page 156 of the Digest.

☞ One of the gambling establishments at Baden Baden has offered Mrs. Lincoln £2.000 per annum to remain there as the guest of that establishment for three years. The offer has been accepted.

RE-DISTRIBUTION OF CURRENCY.—The House Committee on Banking and Currency have incorporated in the Senate banking bill in lieu of the fourth section thereof a section of their own allowing a redistribution of $22,849.000 currency, of which $14.000.000 are to go to the Southern States, $6.000.000 to the Western, and the remainder to other States. Under this arrangement it is ascertained that Massachusetts has an excess over her quota of $8,000.000, and New York about the same. The balance of excess is with Pennsylvania and New England. The arrangement takes currency from large banks principally.

The Governor's Veto of the Price Resolution.

The Governor has returned to the House the joint resolution of the General Assembly, referring the question of negro eligibility to office in this State to the Supreme Court, with his objections thereto. The resolution was not calculated to aid him in his scheme of a Provisional Government. He is unwilling that any solution to our difficulties shall be had short of his own ultimatum. He cannot trust the Supreme Court in the adjudication of a case on which his vaulting ambition has staked everything. He has sworn the horse is seven feet high, and there must be no backing down. He sings the same old song about non-compliance with the reconstruction acts to the same old tune. With one foot on the constitution of the State, and the other upon the laws of common decency, with his eyes lifted to Heaven in mock solemnity, he utters the following inspiration in the ecstacy of his higher-law fanaticism:

Cuffee in the jury-box,
Cuffee back again
In the Halls of Legislation—
Cuffee on the brain.

Yes, I love him for his color—
For the flatness of his snout—
For the perfume that arises
When Cuffee is about.

When I think of my dear Cuffee,
My bosom heaves a sigh—
Lord! I hope to go to Cuffee,
When I lay me down to die.

Feigning to occupy the office of peace maker between the virtuous indignation of what he is pleased to term a Congress of "wisdom and patriotism," and a refractory State, the Governor is eager for a speedy reconciliation, provided concession shall be made of all he demands. If every body will accept his unreasonable extremes, the question may be settled at once. But the Governor is obstinate. There is no compromise in him. He has taken his stand and will not budge an inch though the heavens should fall. Dogmatically adhering to his position, right or wrong, it must be maintained.

What boots it with him that Georgia has been reconstructed according to all the requirements of Congress? Since the result has been to give us a white man's government, what cares he for any adjustment of the difficulty outside of his peculiar plan? Seconding the extreme radicalism of the most ultra Radicals in the land, he is unwilling to abide "the fallible judgment of three citizens of the white race" upon a question affecting "the rights, privileges and immunities of over five hundred thousand American citizens of the black race, who are among us." He asks, "may we not expect Congress will require stronger guarantees for these?" According to the asmo logic Congress is the higher-law power, before whom no decision even of the Supreme Court of the United States shall be valid. There shall be no appeal from its Imperial mandates. Its laws are supreme and no judicial tribunal shall sit in judgment upon them.

The truth is, the Governor staked everything upon a desperate game of chance. He is in the act of losing all. He reckoned without his host. He says to Congress "save me or I perish." But there is more integrity in the Republican party than he dreamed of. Bad as it is he over-estimated its lack of principle. Regardless as it is in many respects of legal restraint, it places a higher estimate on law and government than he imagined. Harsh as it has been in its treatment of Georgia, it was yet more magnanimous than he is willing to concede.

Assumptive and unscrupulous, Governor Bullock saw fit to concoct a scheme of personal aggrandizement, unsupported by wisdom, discretion, or statesmanship. In the arrogance of his ambition he thought to grasp the golden apples of Hesperides, but reaching beyond the scope of right and truth, he missed the prize, and slipping fell into that abyss in which he overweening sought to precipitate the State and people whose destiny were in his hands.—An instrument of discord in his own party, an enemy to the peace and happiness of the State, a foe, to the good order of society, partiless, friendless, sympathyless, he has alienated himself from the very people to whom he might have been endeared. He has destroyed the influences which he might have clustered round to strengthen and uphold him, had he seen fit to be the Governor of the whole people instead of the leader of a weak and powerless faction.

We trust the Legislature will, in due time, pass the resolution over the Governor's head. They owe it to the State, the country and themselves to do it. It would be a fit rebuke to his efforts to further disturb instead of seeking to allay the troubled waters. They will not have discharged their whole duty until they have checkmated the Executive veto, and placed the State in its true light before the world.

"Tall oaks from little acorns grow,
Large streams from little fountains flow."

Seven years ago the PLANTATION BITTERS were but little known. To-day there is not a nook or corner of land where they are not found and used. The sale has reached the enormous number of Five Millions of Bottles annually, and it is constantly increasing. It only shows what can be done with a really good medicine, and a systematic course of making it known. Perhaps no medicine in the world was ever so deservedly popular as the PLANTATION BITTERS. Go where you will, among the rich or poor, and you will always find these Bitters in use. Their merit has become an established fact, and we cordially recommend them in cases of dyspepsia, loss of appetite, chills and fever, headache, etc., etc.

What to do with Worn Lands.

We have been shown, by Mr. B. H. True, Corresponding Secretary of the Morgan county Agricultural and Immigration Society, some specimens of wheat and clover, crops of which are now growing on his place, near Madison, formerly known as the Col. John B. Walker farm, which deserve special mention. The wheat is now two feet high, after having been closely pastured up to the 15th of December. The land on which it was grown is familiarly known in Morgan county as "stiff red land." It had been cultivated for 25 or 30 years, and was thought to be exhausted. The ground was turned under last August to the depth of ten inches, with a 3-horse plow, and cross plowed in October with the same; then, after top dressing with stable manure and cotton seed, the wheat was sown and harrowed in both ways on the 15th of October.

With an ordinary season the crop will yield from thirty to forty bushels to the acre.

The clover exhibited to us by Mr. True, was grown on land which, it is said, had not produced a sprig of vegetation for forty years. The land was prepared in the same way as that on which the wheat was grown. The manure used was about four hundred pounds of Phosphate to the acre, and the seed sown in April last. The roots of the plants are now more than two feet in length, showing to what a depth they penetrate the soil, where it has been properly prepared by deep plowing.

It is the opinion of Mr. True that the old, worn out lands of Morgan, by a proper system of fertilizing and cultnre, may be made to yield as prolific crops as the rich lands of the Gennessee Valley, in which he was raised.

There is a lesson of practical wisdom in the foregoing facts which the agriculturists of the State would do well to profit by.

One object of the Land and Immigration Bill, defeated before the Legislature, was to induce a class of immigration to the State, of which Mr. True is the representative type. With their experience in systems of farming, hitherto unpracticed by us, they would do much toward developing the untouched resources of the State, and in restoring to their primitive fertility thousands of acres of land which have been abandoned for years.

Cotton Manufacture in the South.

We find in an exchange, says the Savannah News, the following strong article in favor of establishing factories at the South We believe that the article is taken from the Boston Commercial: "The same conditions, cheap labor and cheap stock, that favor the extensive manufacture of woollens at the West, encourage the establishment of cotton mills at the South. We are glad to learn that this fact is receiving full recognition by the intelligent of the South. And mere recognition is not all; for at several points in the South cotton mills are in operation, rolling up such profits as Northern manufacturers have long been strangers to. The case of the Augusta (Georgia) Factory, about whose last year's business we recently gave some figures, may well set New England mill owners a thinking. With the general advantages possessed by the South as a site for cotton manufacture, the majority of our readers are of course familiar. They know that it is cheaper to find the raw material at the mill-door than to bring it a thousand miles by rail or sea; that the difference of a few cents in the daily wages of operatives is a very important difference, and perhaps, that coarse cotton goods can be made at least twenty per cent. cheaper at the South than at the North. But there are one or two points on this subject about which the majority are probably less enlightened. The actual loss to the manufacturer in money and stock by baling and the succeeding processes, is not less than fifteen, and perhaps twenty per cent. The waste itself is an item of no inconsiderable value. Again, cotton is never in so good a condition for manufacture as when it leaves the gin. With these facts understood, it is not difficult to see why Southern mills are and have been running at full capacity, while Northern mills are in many cases losing money, nor to believe that Southern made goods can be brought to Lowell and sold cheaper than the products of her own mills.

"The supply of labor for Southern mills may, at the first glance, present some difficulties, but these would merely be temporary. The whole fabric of society in that section has undergone a change; labor is to become a necessity there as well as here, to all, or nearly all the population. There just now, there are thousands of destitute women and children who rejoice in the opportunity of earning not only a living, but a surplus, by working in cotton mills. Their living expenses being considerably less than those of Northern operatives, their wages would, of course, be less. The poor whites of the South, directed by skilled operatives from New England, would soon constitute a working force ample in numbers and first-class in efficiency. And they would not be the only class benefitted by the establishment of cotton manufacture. The South, like the West, offers an inviting field to the industrious and prudent New England operative, wherein he may turn his intelligence, his acquired skill and his little capital to a profitable account. The only condition of complete and magnificent success in cotton manufacture at the South, yet lacking, it seems to us, is the discontinuance of political strife, and the re-establishment of social tranquility, and this desideratum, we believe, is not far distant."

Southern Securities in New York.

GEORGIA AND THE PEABODY FUND.—The General Agent (Dr. Sears) of the Peabody Fund, distributed in this State, last year, about twenty thousand dollars ($20000) of which this (Richmond) county received one thousand dollars ($1,000.)

The contributions from this noted benefactor will be much smaller this year, for the reason, as we learn from Dr. Sears, that the time, in which the Board of Trustees were allowed to use a part of the principal, has expired. The General Agent is now limited to $60,000 per annum, in his distributions to eleven States.

Dr. Sears proposes to go over the ground again this winter, to see what has been accomplished where aid was rendered, and look after other places, which were passed by.—Augusta Constitutionalist.

Je suis le Roi!

BY JOHN ESTEN COOKE.

I'd rather far recall the Past,
Living in memory,
Than reign the sovereign lord of all
The realm of land and sea.

Let others toil for power or gold,
And rich or famous be;
Obscure, unknown, I sit and laugh,
Holding the world in fee!

Maids may not kiss me; old and poor,
Men may not bow to me:
What do I care!—Je suis le Roi!
My kingdom, Memory!

ASA HARTZ.—Death of Maj. Geo. McKnight.—There is scarcely a reader in this city, and few, perhaps, in the whole South, that cannot recall with pleasure some humorous sketch or some literary gem over the signature of "Asa Hartz" that appealed to his heart. Perhaps we ought not to designate the late Geo. McKnight by his non de plume, but we are sure it will be pardoned, as it is a name of which the friends and relatives of the deceased may justly feel proud. Major McKnight died yesterday morning at 3 o'clock, at the age of 35. Before the war the deceased was connected with the press of New Orleans, and during the war he wrote some of his best productions. But his constitution was undermined by camp life and exposure. He returned after the close of the war and resumed his connection with the press.—But the duties of a night editor or reporter is not by any means calculated to restore a shattered constitution, and the machine gradually wore out, until about a year ago, like some worn out engine left by the road side, "Asa Hartz" was heard of no more. The funeral of the deceased, Major George McKnight, will take place at 11 o'clock this morning, from Christ Church.—N. O. Bulletin, 11th.

☞ Rev. Henry A. Wise, Jr., whose death has been announced, was rector of an Episcopal Church in Philadelphia before the war. He was the last surviving son of the old Governor, his brother, Jennings Wise, editor of the Richmond Enquirer, having been killed at the battle of Roanoke Island.

DR. JOHN BULL'S Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL,

Manufacturer and Vender of the Celebrated

Smith's Tonic Syrup,

FOR THE CURE OF

AGUE AND FEVER,

—OR—

Chills and Fever.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the safe, certain, speedy and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southwestern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion, that in no case whatever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

Bull's Worm Destroyer.

To my United States and World-wide Readers.

I have received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as my almanacs and various publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following letter from a highly educated and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. Dr. Clement says exactly what he speaks of, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of BULL'S WORM DESTROYER:

VILLANOW, Walker Co., Ga., June 13, 1868.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderfully efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary, they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine direct from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line M. D's, but I see no just cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know to be effectual, simply because we may be ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate suffering humanity which I may be able to command—not hesitating because some one more ingenious than myself may have learned its use first and secured the sole right to secure that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the country, but purport to cure all manner of diseases to which human flesh is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms. I am, sir, most respectfully,

JULIUS P. CLEMENT M. D.

Bull's Sarsaparilla.

A Good Reason for the Captain's Faith.

READ THE CAPTAIN'S LETTER AND THE LETTER FROM HIS MOTHER.

BENTON BARRACKS, Mo., April 30 1868.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficiency of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded two years ago—was taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed, but I have not set up a moment since I was wounded. I am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in anything else. I wish that it could be obtained. Please express me half a dozen bottles, and oblige.

Capt. C. P. JOHNSON,
St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written April 28, 1868, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Captain Johnson:

DR. BULL—Dear Sir: My husband, Dr. C. L. Johnson, was a skillful surgeon and physician in Central New York, where he died leaving me above C. P. Johnson to my care at thirteen years of age he had a chronic diarrhœa and scrofula, for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla, it cured HIM. I have for ten years recommended it to many in New York, Ohio and Iowa, for scrofula, fever sores and general debility, with success has attended it. The cures effected in some cases of scrofula and fever sores were almost miraculous. I am very anxious for my son again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla, as I fearful of getting a spurious article, hence I writing to you for it. His wounds were severe, but I believe he will recover.

Respectfully, JENNIE JOHNSON.

THE MARVEL OF THE AGE!—Several years ago we frequently read reports in the London and Paris Journals of the great excitement that had been created in those cities by Mad. Gabrielle Stewart, one of the most wonderful clairvoyants the present century has produced.

We were agreeably surprised to-day upon learning that this talented lady, who is now making a tour of the United States, has actually arrived in this city and taken a suite of rooms at the National Hotel, room No 18. We have not yet had leisure to call on her, but learn from those who have that the accurate disclosures that she makes, when in a clairvoyant state, are truly marvelous and sufficient to convince the most incredulous, that the Madame is no charlatan, but a bona fide revealer of future events. Call on her, by all means, and learn your destiny.

READ, O WOMAN!—As health is the greatest blessing on earth, so is disease the greatest curse. The first wish of the heart, therefore, in a temporal view should be health. Nor is this all. As disease renders us unfit to perform the various duties appropriate to our station in life, there is a moral obligation resting upon us to preserve our physical integrity, by using the means at hand for repelling disease.

Now there is nothing so destructive to health in females as a continued suppression of the menses. It is a condition which makes a woman useless to herself and a burden to her friends. Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, Woman's best Friend, is the only certain cure. Lose not a moment in embracing the remedy. feb14-tf

THE HANLON BROTHERS.—Davis' Theater was crowded last night by a large and appreciative audience, to witness the extraordinary performance of the Hanlon Brothers. We boldly assert without fear of contradiction, that they have no equals, much less superiors. Miss Emily Thorne, the commediene and vocalist, sustains her exalted reputation. James Blamphin deservedly merits the title of the great harpist. Mr. and Mrs. Brennan, are decidedly au fait as burlesque operatic artistes. Mr. Cordella as a pianist, deserves special mention for his musical ability. Sylvania, Benedict and Bernard, the pantomimists, are peculiarly entertaining. The pupils, Julian, Victor, and Francis, evidence the skill of their accomplished teachers. To night is the last night of the performance, and we bespeak for the Hanlon Brothers a rousing house.

Their entertainments are chaste and instructive, and worthy of public patronage.

ROBINSON'S CIRCUS.—Another crowded house greeted Robinson's Circus last night. There is no doubt about Jim Robinson being the champion rider of the world, and Clarence is assuredly a "chip off the old block." All the performers sustain their parts admirably. We can assure our country friends that this is not only the real, genuine, bona-fide Robinson's Circus, but that all its actors are stars, and they perform what is laid down on the bills. Don't be afraid to go to see it, for it is no humbug.

THE LUMPKIN LYCEUM.—It is with pleasure that we announce the revival of this popular Debating Society. We are informed that its membership is rapidly increasing, and in point of vigor, zeal, and spirit, it already rivals its palmiest days. Literary societies are valuable additions to every community. Their tendency is to elevate, refine, and improve. We trust that the "Lumpkin Lyceum" may become a permanent institution. Our young men—the aspiring, educated youth of our country, should, by all means, encourage societies of a like character. The necessities of the present imperatively demand the cultivation of every resource—mental as well as physical.

JOHN BULL.—John is a popular man. When we say John Bull, we allude to the proprietor of those great remedies, Cedron Bitters, Worm Destroyer, Sarsaparilla, and Tonic Syrup, Dr. John Bull, of Louisville, Kentucky. These great remedies have achieved a national reputation, because they have been found to do what is claimed for them as curative agencies. We have said that John Bull was a popular man, and that is true, but his remedies are more popular. They can be obtained at L. H. Bradfield's.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, FEBRUARY 16

Dante.

BY E. ORRELL.

Through the streets of fair Verona one alone great Dante went,
When th bard of Florence wandered from his land in banishment;
And it chanced a little maiden, as he passed, the poet spied;
And she spake thus to her sister who was sitting by her side:
"Sister, look! there goes that Dante who descended into hell;
On his dusky brow are written gloom and horror—mark him well!
In that city of the torments he has seen such anguish sore
That an inward terror holds him, and he smileth nevermore."
Dante heard, and turned toward her—from his lips th se accents fell:
"To forget the trick of smiling, I need no descent to hell.
All the suffering I depicted—every torment, every wound—
Here upon this earth already, aye, in Florence, I have found."

Important to Foreigners.

We understand Judge Lochrane of this city, a well known Lawyer and Foreigner himself, has already on hand, and is receiving claims for large amounts held by Foreigners who remained neutral during the war, on account of property destroyed by either army. We presume there will be enough of these to offset the Alabama claims.

☞ Yale College, prior to 1860, had furnished from its graduates 42 Presidents of other colleges, 10 Cabinet Ministers, 9 Ambassadors from our government to foreign countries, 130 members of the national House of Representatives, 40 members of the United States Senate, 27 Governors of States, 100 Judges of Superior and Supreme Courts, and several thousand Christian ministers. Also, during the recent rebellion, 737 graduates and undergraduates entered the military service of the Government.

Special Correspondence Courier-Journal.]

THE MOB STILL WATCHFUL.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—There was little or no cessation to-day in the interest or excitement aroused by the extraordinary and disgraceful proceedings, in Congress on yesterday.

MORBID APPETITE.

As it was known that the discussion would be resumed to-day on Butler's motion to refer to a committee his resolution proposing to censure Wade for his decisions in joint convention, a large audience assembled in the House galleries some time before the hour of meeting, and by 2 P. M. there was neither standing or sitting room within the hall. By order of the Speaker even the floor was cleared at one time of the interlopers.

SHELLABARGER,

of Ohio, opened the discussion to-day, which lasted until 4:30 P. M. He opposed Butler very bitterly, declaring that some of the latter's positions were simply revolutionary, and accused him of wanting the Senate to do the counting of the vote—just what he had insisted the House should not do.

A CASE IN POINT.

The venerable Thomas, of Maryland, then followed, and said that it was his fortune, thirty-three years ago yesterday, to be named, in conjunction with a gentleman from Tennessee, to count the votes for President and Vice-President of the United States. A difficulty similar to that of yesterday sprang up. The State of Michigan, without Congress authorizing it, had proceeded to organize a State government; but, said Mr. Thomas, looking at Butler as he spoke, Calhoun, who was the mischief-maker of that day, only succeeded in getting nine votes to oppose a resolution in the case of Michigan similar to that passed by Congress in the case of Georgia.

JUDGE WOODWARD,

of Pennsylvania, made the first speech on the Democratic side, and was listened to attentively, members of both parties flocking around him. He did not regard the Michigan and Georgia cases as at all analygous.

ELDRIGE,

of Wisconsin, declared that the concurrent resolution passed in the Georgia case was unconstitutional, and all others that virtually repealed the law under which the electoral votes were counted.

AN OLD SCORE.

Mr. Bingham next took the floor on the Radical side, and flew at Butler like a tiger. The fire of their old quarrel was rekindled. He reiterated that Butler's position on this question was the doctrine of secession and the spirit of revolution. The members gathered around him, and the galleries tingled with applause as he hurled this epithet again and again at Butler, who stood before him in affected dramatic attitude.

SCHENCK

Then made a long speech sustaining Butler.

SMILER TAKES A HAND.

Mr. Colfax came down from the Speaker's chair and three times replied to Mr. Schenck, and defended his order of yesterday in joint convention for the arrest of disorderly members.

A RANDOM SHOT.

Mr. Garfield succeeded Mr. Schenck, and like the rest of the Ohio delegation, but the latter, sustained the ruling of Mr. Wade on yesterday. As Mr. Garfield sat down he moved to lay Mr. Butler's resolution on the table. The motion was unexpected, and, as it cut off debate, created at once intense confusion.

DISTINCTION ON ACCOUNT OF COLOR FROM AN UNEXPECTED SOURCE.

Mr. Butler screamed out, looking at Garfield, "That is the meanest thing a white man ever did in Congress." The distinction on account of race and color provoked great laughter.

GARFIELD CRAWFISHES.

Finally Garfield was overwhelmed with protests and withdrew his motion.

BUTLER GOES FOR 'EM.

Mr. Logan got the floor but yielded to Butler, who replied to Bingham, accusing the latter of persistently repeating his rhetorical allusions to the war and the growth of the common law as the gathered wisdom of a thousand years. This brought down the house in roars of laughter.

BREATHING SPELL.

Finally, at 4.30 the House took a recess on this matter till to-morrow, when Mr. Logan, of Illinois, proposes to speak.

IMPEACHMENT OF WADE.

Butler & Company have been seriously considering the impeachment of Wade, but there are enough Republicans with the Democrats to table the pending resolutions.

JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE

will leave Baltimore for New York next week, and thence returning, will meet his children at Gen. Lee's college, Lexington, Va. He will then proceed directly to Kentucky.

ANNIE SURRATT.

The Board of Trustees of Baltimore rejected the application of Annie Surratt for the position of teacher in the public schools. She is educated, and competent for the place, but the Board, it is stated, are prejudiced against her religious persuasions.

MISSISSIPPI.

The action of the Reconstruction Committee on Mississippi has been erroneously stated. The vote taken in committee was on the question whether or not the people had adopted the constitution. The majority of the committee voted no. Bingham's bill to accept the rejected constitution was also killed, as heretofore stated. The majority of the committee will report in favor of again submitting the constitution to the people with certain obnoxious clauses stricken out.

TESTIMONIALS:
We select the following extracts for the benefit of those who have not used Rhodes' "Standard" Manure:
S. Wyatt, Esq., of Allington Plantation, near Waynesboro, Ga., writes as follows to Messrs. B. M. Rhodes & Co.:
"Your Phosphate I am highly delighted with; I gave it a fair trial along with several other Standard Manures, and I regard it fully equal if not superior to the best of them. On one field of 100 acres, that I am sure would not, in its natural state, have produced over 400 lbs. of seed cotton to the acre, I have already gathered 700 pounds, and think I shall get fully 200 pounds more.
"Two other fields of 100 acres, better land, I have gathered, at two pickings, over 1,000 pounds to the acre of seed cotton, and think I shall get 200 pounds more.
"I tried it, also, on corn, and found it very good, but not equal in its results to the cotton crop. Several of my neighbors, whose lands adjoin my own, and is pretty much the same character of land, who used no fertilizer at all, have signally failed, making no more than half a crop, if so much as that. Where I applied Rhodes' Phosphate the cotton was heavily fruited, boll's larger, the staple longer, stronger and better than where none was used, so much so that any one, even though he may never have seen the growing cotton, could readily see it. The only objection to it is, it causes the cotton to open faster than we can possibly gather it—at least, such is my experience."
T. C. Howard, Esq., of Darien, Ga., writes as follows:
"It is proper that I should say the results of the use of your fertilizer have been very marked and indeed surprising. I have made more cotton by its aid on worn out land, that has not been in cultivation in two years past, than I have been able to do on the best swamp or bottom land on my place in Mississippi."

ATHENS, GA., January 23, 1869.
Messrs. P. P. Pease & Co., Atlanta: I applied the two tons of Rhodes' Super-Phosphate, which you furnished me last year, at the rate of 400 pounds to the acre, on thin land, considerably exhausted by continued cultivation, without manure, and have no hesitation in saying that it is an excellent fertilizer for cotton. On the eight acres to which I applied it, I picked upwards of 8,000 pounds of seed cotton—more than double what the land would have produced without the fertilizer. It is also proper to mention, that while the caterpillars stripped all the leaves and young bolls off an adjoining patch, manured with Dickson's Mixture commencing their ravages in August, they did not attack that manured with Rhodes' Super-Phosphate until the first week in October.
WILLIAM M. BROWNE.
Thousands of certificates and letters could be published, showing the value of Rhodes' "Standard," a quick and permanent fertilizer.

The Soluble Pacific Guano.
TESTIMONIALS:
NEAR ATLANTA, GA., December 10th, 1868.
Messrs. Adair & Brother: I applied Soluble Pacific Guano, procured from you, at the rate of 200 pounds per acre on cotton. I am satisfied its use produced a crop three times greater than the land would produce without it. GEO. S. KEY.
NEAR ATLANTA, GA., Dec. 1, 1868.
Messrs. Adair & Brother: I applied 300 pounds per acre of Soluble Pacific Guano, procured from you. Notwithstanding a ten weeks' drought and the attack of the caterpillar, I gathered 850 pounds per acre. From the same land, without the Guano, I gathered only 200 pounds cotton—say less than one-fourth the quantity. E. MORRIS.
ATLANTA, GA., Dec. 12th, 1868.
Messrs. Adair & Brother: I used this year the Soluble Pacific Guano, bought of you, at the rate of 100 pounds per acre on cotton planted three feet apart in the drill. I am confident it is a pure article and believe it increased the yield double notwithstanding a six weeks' drought and serious attack of caterpillar. J. M. CALHOUN.
ATLANTA, GA., Dec. 10th, 1868.
Messrs. Adair & Brother, Gents: I bought of you last spring one ton Soluble Pacific Guano and put it on cotton. It came fully up to my expectations and I cheerfully recommend it to planters as a profitable fertilizer for cotton. M. G. DOBBINS.
COLUMBUS, GA., December, 1868.
John S. Reese & Co., Dear Sirs: Another season confirms my previously expressed convictions that the Soluble Pacific Guano, as compared with Peruvian, is fully as good—indeed better. I have now tested it sufficiently, using each side by side for two seasons, applying the same weight of guano per acre, and in every case the Pacific has given the best results on cotton, corn, potatoes and small grain, and the testimony I have from a great many planters confirms my experience.
WM. H. YOUNG.
Charles A. Peabody, Esq., of Lee county, Alabama, in a letter to William H. Young, says:
"The Peruvian Guano I had before used, and know it to be an invaluable fertilizer for cotton. I now find the Soluble Pacific to be equally a good. At the same price I would as soon have it for cotton or corn as the Peruvian; some of my hands insist that it is better." dec15-d3m
